

Jim Corbett

Jim Corbett was educated in Catholic Schools in his native New Jersey and moved to Columbia to attend the University of South Carolina in 1979. He has been here ever since. He is married to Allison and has three children, 16, 6 and 6 months. Jim is a Lector and Eucharistic Minister at St. Joseph's in Columbia and is an active Knight of Columbus, currently serving as Grand Knight of Council 12554. He is a practicing attorney who still dabbles in his first love, broadcasting, especially sports casting.

Jim Curley

Jim Curley and his wife Lori raise their children in Bethune, SC. Jim runs a small publishing company (Requiem Press) and does contract work as a patent agent. He and his family are members of St. Catherine of Siena parish in Lancaster, SC.

Dennis Egan

Dennis Egan is Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Carolina Retail Packaging, a leader in the retail packaging industry for over 35 years. The company specializes in creating and printing distinctive graphics on store use shopping bags, boxes, giftwrap, etc. A graduate of the College of Charleston in Charleston, South Carolina, Dennis holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing. Dennis resides in Columbia with his wife Pamela of 21 years and five children. The family attends and is active in St. Joseph's Catholic Church and their children attend St. Joseph's School as well as Cardinal Newman High School.

Bob Henry

Bob Henry, Secretary for the Midlands Holy Family Fund is a member of both the St. Thomas More parish and St. Joseph's parish in Columbia, SC. He is currently a member of the St. Joseph's parish Men's Prayer group and a former RCIA catechist at St. Joseph's parish. Presently, Bob is a member of the contemporary choir and a Eucharistic Minister at St. Thomas More parish. Bob and his wife Susan (math teacher at Cardinal Newman) have been married for 37 years as of 6/24/09 and they have 3 adult children who are all married. They also have 4 grandchildren. Bob was born in Pennsylvania and lived about 20 years of his life in Virginia. For the past 26.5 years he has lived in the Columbia, SC area. Bob has a B.S and a M.S. degree in chemical engineering from Virginia Tech and has worked for Westinghouse Nuclear Fuels in Columbia, SC as a chemical process engineer for the past 26.5 years.

Joe Lynch

Joe Lynch, born in Brooklyn, has been a member of St. Joseph Parish since 1972. He has eight children, all of whom have graduated from St. Joseph Grammar School and all but his youngest from Cardinal Newman H.S. His family is a mix of Clemson and USC graduates. His wife, Helen, was Vice President of Nursing at Palmetto Children's Hospital for several years until her death in 2001. Currently Joe is employed at SCANA Corp.

Mary Kay Palyok

Attended Cardinal Newman High School. Married to Mike Palyok in 1970. They have 5 children and 16 grandchildren. She is currently the Administrator of Our Lady of Perpetual Help (OLPH) Home School Association which is an organization that Catholic home school parents belong to that serves to satisfy the requirements of the South Carolina Education Commission to home school their children. Mary Kay is a founding member of the Midlands Holy Family Fund.

Mike Palyok

Attended Cardinal Newman High School, graduated USC in Business Administration. Married to Mary Kay Hofmann in 1970. They have 5 children and 16 grandchildren. Spent early years working at J.B. Whites Department Store chain and currently is President of Pal Travel, a full service travel agency. Mike is a founding member of the Midlands Holy Family Fund.